

Aid:

economic -- to Communist countries (total extended to all Communist countries 1971) $2,172.1 million; recipients were Poland $1,111.1 million, Cuba $506 million, Yugoslavia $140 million, North Vietnam $315 million, North Korea $100 million -- to non-Communist countries (total extended 1971) $896 million; recipients were Algeria $188.9 million, Cameroon $1.9 million, Equatorial Guinea $1.1 million, Somalia $18 million, Bolivia $2.0 million, Chile $36.5 million, Costa Rica $15.0 million, Ecuador $0.4 million, Afghanistan $5.0 million, Ceylon $0.3 million, Egypt $195.6 million, Iraq $222.2 million, Pakistan $208.8 million and Syria $0.3 million; military (est.) -- (total extended 1971) -- $1,294 million; principal recipients were Iran $155 million, Iraq $250 million, Egypt $350 million, India $265 million, Afghanistan $107 million, Algeria $100 million, Syria $40 million.

25X1

25X1